A W O R D

Last year, I published a book entitled "A History of the Michael Reasor and Allied Families" which may be found in many of the leading libraries and Historical societies of the U.S. In this book I gave the history of my Father's Mother's and Wife's people. When this book was published, about all I knew of my maternal grandmother, Rebecca Pittinger was when she was born, where she lived, and when she died. A few weeks ago, I decided to investigate the ancestry of Rebecca Pittinger. This book is the result.

There are thousands of Pittengers in the United States and most of them trace their ancestry back to Richard Pittenger, the emigrant. Many of the Pittengers in the U.S. have gained distinction and renown.

William A. Pittenger is a member of Congress from Minnesota.

Fred Allen Pittenger, Wm. Joseph Pittenger, Bryan Naylor Pittenger, Earle Alexander Pittinger and B. N. Pittenger are eminent men in the medical profession.

Lemuel Arthur Pittenger, Pres. of Ball State Teachers College, B. F. Pittenger, Dean of the school of Education of the University of Texas and Paul S. Pittenger, Prof. of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science have made their mark in the educational field.

Our cousin, the late John D. Rockefeller made his mark in the business world.

The Pittenger name is one, that we can all well be proud of.

Each year on the 3rd Sunday in August 300 Pittengers meet for a family reunion at Muncie, Indiana.

The members of our family have been very kind to answer letters and give information, and without their generous assistance this book would have been impossible.

I am especially indebted to Mrs. E. B. Wall, L. A. Pittenger, Benjamin R. Pittenger, B. F. Pittenger, Leo Pittenger, Clive F. Pittenger, W. S. Pittenger, Jacob C. Pittenger, Adelia Pittenger, the late Mary Woodsmall Watkins, the late Albert R. Davis, Mrs. Chas. H. Hatton, Eudora L. Smith, Bertha Slemmons and Ruth Dale Nichols. To them and the members of the families whose records are herewith presented and to the generations yet unborn of these same families, this book is dedicated.

Do not loan and lose this book. Keep it.

It is a book your children will prize through the coming years.

Chapter I

THE PITTENGER FAMILY

The Spelling of the Name

In the early days in England, the Pittenger name was variously spelled: Pottinger, Pewtenger, Peppenger, Pettinger, Putenger, Pepenser, Pettiner and Pittenger. In America, the spelling of the name "Pittinger" has generally been adopted.

The Origin of the Name

It is difficult to say whether or not the Original Pittenger was an apothecary or Soup Cook. The Scottish name for Apothecary (Druggist) is Potenger, evidently implying the idea of potting, that is, putting substances into pots or a maker of pottage, meaning pot maker. The surname Pittenger is often confused with Pottenger and is usually from old english "Pett" (a well or spring), "ing" (a meadow) and the termination "er" meaning an inhabitant of. Therefore, the word "Pittenger" means "Living by a well in a meadow."

Pittenger Traditions

Most Pittengers say they are Dutch. In the emigrant period they were Dutch. However, the name is English in origin and the first Pittengers we know of were English and Puritans.

In the book "The Story of the Pilgrims" by Arber is given an account of the marriage of Exiles registered at the City Hall in Leyden, Holland, from 1610 to 1617 at page 167. William Bradford is witness to the marriage of Henry Crullens, widower out of England with Elizabeth Pettinger, maid. The ancestral home of the Pittengers in England was in Nottinghamshire, which was the cradle of the Puritan movement. The family had a coat of arms and played a prominent part in the early English history. In later years, Sir Henry Pittenger was a baronet and he negotiated the treaty which gave the British Hong Kong, and he was made its Governor.

Records from the church of Puritans, Leyden, Holland, show one "Elizabeth Pittenger, spinster married John Jennings, their son John Jennings II married Fear, daughter of Rev. John Robinson, who was the leader of the Puritan movement in the new world.

In later years, George of Hanover was living in Holland, while there he married a Pittenger maiden. When he was called to the throne of England as George I, he deserted his Pittenger wife, so tradition says.

From all the records available, we are led to the conclusion that the Pittenger family was originally of English origin and fled England to Holland for conscience sake, prior to 1610.

Chapter II

RICHARD PITTENGER

Our emigrant ancestor, Richard Pittenger came from Holland to America on the ship "Phillip" and landed in New Amsterdam, now New York City on July 29, 1665. The ship was in charge of Philip Carteret, with 30 passengers aboard, 16 of whom, including Richard Pittenger removed in a few days with Philip Carteret from New York City to New Jersey with the purpose of planting a colony. At that time only 4 families had settled in N.J.; 269 acres of land was allotted Richard Pittenger and each of the other colonists. The tract that Richard Pittenger drew adjoined the tract owned by the governor. The Edison experimental works now occupies the tract drawn by Richard Pittenger.

Richard Pittenger's cattle mark was: A crop in the near ear and a hole in the right, recorded Nov. 29, 1708.

On March 11, 1678 Richard Pittenger was a witness to the marriage contract of Mrs. Margaret Stuyvesant, half sister of Governor Stuyvesant, and Hendrick Droogestadt.

Richard Pittenger died in 1715 and on October 16, 1715, administration was granted his son John Pittenger. See Colonial Documents, N.J. Archives, 1st series Vol. 23, page 368 Wills.

On January 10, 1716, at the council held at Chesterfield a bill was introduced to allow John Pittenger and Syche Pittenger of Piscataqua, N.J. to sell and dispose of the real estate of Richard Pittenger, deceased for the payment of debts. April 8, 1717 this bill passed. See Colonial Documents of New Jersey, Vol. XXI, pp. 46.

Syche Hendricksen was the wife of Richard Pittenger. It is not known when or where they married, but the evidence goes to show that they married in Holland.

Children of Richard Pittenger and Syche Hendricksen:

- i. John Pittenger, B. 1670, D. 1721, M. Elizabeth ----
- ii. Richard Pittenger II, M. Annetje Anthony
- iii. Daniel Pittenger, B. 1690, M. Elizabeth Biggs, dau. of John Biggs
- iv. Possibly, Hendrick Pittenger, B. 1695, D. April 25, 1775, M. Mary Low

Syche Pittenger, whose parents we have been unable to identify with certainty married Isaac Selover, Jr. a son of Isaac Selover, Sr. a schoolmaster at Flatlands, N.Y. in 1695 and Judith Waldron. They had a daughter baptized Aug. 15, 1732 at the Harlingen D.R. Church with John Pittenger, son of Richard Pittenger and Syche Hendricksen, the child's grandmother and widow of Richard Pittenger, sponsors.

Isaac Selover, Jr. and Syche Pittenger had a son, Abraham Selover, B. in 1748, D. May 15, 1828. Abraham Selover and wife had a daughter, Syche Selover, B. Aug. 17, 1776; D. Oct. 29, 1823; married John Davison born in N.J. Of this marriage 3 daughters were born, one of whom Eliza Davison, B. Sept. 12, 1813, M. William Avery Rockefeller at Niles, N.Y. Feb. 18, 1837. They were the parents of John Davison Rockefeller (John D.) the late multimillionaire and philanthropist.

John D. Rockefeller was B. in 1839 and D. May 23, 1937 at the Casements, his home in Florida. The genealogy of John D. Rockefeller has been compiled by Mabel Jacques Hadler, Egeland, North Dakota.

John Pittenger, son of Richard Pittenger and Syche Hendricksen, B. 1670, D. 1721, is called a seafaring man, the first of the Pittengers that we know of to have followed the sea. He M. Elizabeth ---- and they had 5 children, 2 sons and 3 daughters. The sons died early, and we have no further record of the daughters.

Chapter V

ABRAHAM PITTENGER

Abraham Pittenger was a son of Richard Pittenger III and Rebecca Griggs. He was born at Somerset New Jersey in 1762 (Rev. War record) and was baptized July 16, 1763 (church record). He moved with his parents from Somerset, N. J. to Culpepper, Va. in 1778. While at Culpepper, Va. he purchased a farm. In 1798, he moved to Shelby County, now Spencer County, Ky. and settled on Elk Creek in Spencer Co. Ky. where he lived and died. He was a large land owner in Spencer County and had many slaves. He died May 1, 1837. His will was offered for probate at Taylorsville, Ky. on June 5th, 1837. His son William was his executor. He served in the Revolutionary War by enlisting in Culpepper County Va. in August 1778 and served three months as private under Captain Richard Noll in Colonel Dick's Virginia Regiment, during which period he marched to Richmond, where he was stationed for some time. Again in February he enlisted in Culpepper County, Va. as private in the company of Captain "Jimmison" Colonel Stanton's Virginia Regiment. He later joined Major Boice's Battalion of Light infantry and served six months, during which service he marched to Richmond, and from there to Chesterfield Courthouse. He again enlisted in September, 1781 and served three months as private in Captain Gillison's Company, Colonel Jameson's Virginia Regiment during which time, he was present at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown and guarded the prisoners taken from there to Winchester Barracks.

Abraham Pittenger drew a pension by reason of his services in the Revolutionary war of $30.00 per year, commencing March 4, 1831. The certificate for his pension was issued April 25, 1834 recorded in Book C. Volume 7 page 23 of the records of the War Dept.

By reason of his services in the Rev. War, all of the male descendants of Abraham Pittenger are eligible for membership in that patriotic society known as the "Son's of the American Revolution" and all of his female descendants are eligible for membership in the "Daughter's of the American Revolution".
